

MEASUREMENT OF THE RATIO N_2/N_1 AS A FUNCTION OF ROCK DEPTH

M.Sioli for the MACRO Collaboration
University and INFN - Bologna

We report the measurement of the ratio of double muon events over single muon events as a function of rock depth, detected by the MACRO experiment. Particular attention has been devoted to the analysis of high zenith angle events. Results are compared to the expectation of a detailed simulation performed with HEMAS-DPM Monte Carlo.